Betting.

MEMPHIS, Tenn., April 3.—Capt. S. S. Brown's handsome bay colt Agile, by Sir Dixon, dam Alpina, ridden by Jack Martin, romped home an easy winner in the Tennessee derby, at a mile and one-eighth, this afternoon, defeating John Smulski, the Edison candidate, and Jack Lory, representing the stable of John W. Carr, by five lengths. Ram's Horn and Whip-Poor-Will, the entry of Capt. W. S. Williams, were withdrawn. Agile was a favorite in the betting. Today's derby was probably the greatest stake ever offered in the South, the gross value being $10,000, of which $300 went to the winner.

George Gardner

Hard at Work

Long Puglist Now Training, and Ogden Crowds Watch Him With Interest.

Special to The Tribune.

OGDEN, April 3.—George Gardner began his training today by taking a three-mile run, after which he went to his quarters, boxed several rounds and punched the bag, all in the presence of a crowd of admiring friends. It had been announced that Gardner would train in the big hall in the National Guard rooms, but today a change was decided upon and Gardner will go to the place of his first choice, the central fire station.

By tomorrow afternoon he will be under full headway. His quarters will be open to the public about 2 o'clock.

SIX ROUNDS TO DRAW.

PHILADELPHIA, April 3.—Young Corbett of Denver and Young Ernie of this city sparred six rounds at the West Kensington Sporting club tonight. Corbett was fat and fought wildly, frequently misjudging his distance and many of his blows landed on the back of his opponent's head. Ernie, while active, was timid, and much of the time was wasted in clinches and bugging.

In the third round, Ernie was cut over the eye and in the sixth Corbett's mouth was bleeding. In the same round Corbett rushed Ernie through the ropes and landed a tremendous number of blows. He jabbed Corbett frequently and ran away from the swings of his opponent. Corbett tried to stop Ernie repeatedly, and several times countered on Ernie's jaw, but his blows lacked strength. Under the law no decision can be given in this city, but the spectators appeared to be of the opinion that the fight was a draw.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cures of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by all leading druggists.

Young Fitz Is Defeated.

TACOMA, Wash., April 2.—In the sixth round of what was to have been a twenty-round fight, Young Fitzsimmons (Charles Jones) was defeated by Jack (Twin) Sullivan. A left to the jaw sent Fitzsimmons to the floor. Throughout the bout Sullivan had the better of the argument about the younger showed good form.

Faddy Lane Knocked Out.

CINCINNATI, O., April 3.—Kid Wilson of this city tonight knocked out Faddy Lane of Brooklyn in the first round.

Stagers.

The way things looked yesterday, it wouldn't be hazardous of a guess to say that the Elders were going to surprise some one in a little. They got down on their toes and handled themselves roughly during yesterday's workout.

Johnny Evers, who held down second for the Chicago Nationals Sunday, claims he has the distinction of being the youngest major league player. He hears another distinction, which has come to no other player in the big leagues. Evers never played in a minor league club, being picked up on the town lots three years ago by Chicago. He was born in 1882 at Troy, N. Y. His batting average last year was .265 and his fielding average .938. He stole thirty-seven bases and accepted 101 more chances at second than any other second baseman in either of the major leagues. He is spoken of as being destined to be a kingpin in the near future. And yet he didn't appear to outclass the company into which he and his team mates dropped Sunday afternoon.

Russ Ham and our old friend, J. Slats Davis, used to be team mates years ago. May be Russ thought that when he started an argument with Davis on Thursday's Southwestern game, Anyhow, Slats stood firm and said: "I've been in the game for a long time, and I've never been in a position where I've been brought in to the game by a manager."

This is the way they look at it on the coast. The following from the Seattle Times of Friday last seems pretty accurate: "Charles Bailey has Max Muller, Bert DeMa and several other crack Californians on his team, and the Mormons should certainly be well up in the race."

Leahy at backstop has Matt Stanley skinned a day or two. He is a one-blower warmer but it Sunday evening, and it certainly looks as if Salt Lake had the prize catcher of the league. Leahy has given evidence of possessing as good, if not a better head than Spokane's warhorse. And at the same time he has the good arm and limber muscles that are leaving Stanley.

Thomas and his pit bull promise to do things this season. The curly-haired twister handed some mighty good advice to the delivery to Sales' bunch, and he has more up beat things about Thomas. One of the ways of looking at it, is his good nature during working hours. He is as careful in the box as if he'd just gotten a raise in salary. And this same smiling countenance is decidedly disconcerting to many batters, especially at critical moments. He seems to have all varieties in the way of speed and to be able to control the ball at will.

Crist took a turn in the box yesterday afternoon and was, for the time being, the center of many pairs of eyes. He handles himself limberly and showed good speed at times. He is one of Reilly's Montana finds.

The Elders learned one another's last names yesterday. Ten o'clock practice was followed by a turnout at 2 o'clock. By the time Reilly had done with them they began to feel as if they had been in the game for a long time. Leahy and his bunch, and he has more up beat things about Thomas.
